FAQS

What is the difference between a private and semi-private booking?

A private booking is when the entire venue is closed to the public, giving your group exclusive use of all areas and private rooms. A private booking is always subject to a minimum F&B spend which varies depending on the date & day of the week.

A semi-private booking is when a room or section in the restaurant is reserved for your groups' exclusive use, but the restaurant remains open to the public. A semi-private booking may involve a minimum F&B spend which varies seasonally.

What is a minimum spend?

A minimum spend is the minimum amount which you are required to spend before taxes and gratuity. Items such as food, beverages, pool & ping-pong, count towards a minimum spend. Minimum spend amounts vary depending on the chosen date of your event.

Minimum charges are subject to tax and gratuity. Not all dates are subject to a minimum spend.

Is there a venue rental fee?

No, however certain group bookings are subject to a minimum spend as outlined above in "What is a minimum spend?"

May we bring our own music?

Yes, you can plug an ipod in to our premium sound system, bring a DJ or a band.

private only

May we decorate the room our selves?

Yes.

Do you accommodate vegetarians & vegans & dietary restrictions?

Yes. With advance notice we are happy to accommodate.

Is there wheelchair access?

Yes, however lower seating is limited so please let us know in advance.

Will the gratuity be included on our bill?

Yes. We include an 18% gratuity to the bill of parties of six or more. This will be distributed amongst all of the staff who have helped to make your special event come together.

Can I use drink tickets for my party?

Yes, we can provide you with drink tickets to hand out to your guests, this will allow you to easily keep track of how many drinks you would like to provide each guest.

Is there any AV equipment available for our use?

Yes. We have a drop projector screen, a wandering microphone and TV's available for use.

Do you have a Patio?

Yes, our patio can accommodate groups of up to 50 people.
